Old Business:

IRS 501(c)3 Application Update

Zach Gunyan was able to get a letter back from the IRS about the non-profit EIN. This has now been approved by the IRS. The next step is to seek Non-Profit status with IRS. The EIN is basically like a social security number, it does not grant you non-profit status, that is a separate approval process. The application has already been filed with the IRS, this cost $275.00 which was paid for out Zach's pocket. Requesting reimbursement for this expenditure.

*Motion to approve reimbursement of $275.00 for the Non-Profit application fee by Huie Hazelett
Second by John Aaron
Discussion: None
Call for Vote: No abstentions, Motion Carried.*

Officer Election

At the conclusion of previous meeting there was a tied vote for two offices. With several members not able to cast their vote at previous meeting, an opportunity was extended to them to vote during this meeting to break the tie.
